She is a joy to make music with and a committed Christian whose music is a primary voice of faith. Her command of her instrument is sure, her musicianship impeccable. You will be delighted and blessed." Dr. Donald L. Armitage, Minister of Music Augsburg Lutheran Church Winston-Salem, NC "Julie Hammarback combines considerable skills as a singer and harpist with some good backup musicians to create a restful collection of traditional and contemporary lullabies." John Hoffman Today's Parent Magazine "Whenever Julie Hammarback has assisted us in ministry, she has brought with her not only her harp and her mastery of that instrument, but also her heart of love for Christ and others. Through both her music and her very presence, she radiated Christ and helps assure others into a deeper experience of His presence and power." Preston Parrish, Executive vice president of Billy Graham Evangelistic Association "The harp is a beautiful instrument. To say that a greater music can only be heard in heaven, in my opinion, is to state it accurately. Julie Hammarback has a sweet spirit and a warm testimony for the Lord. She will be a unique blessing to any congregation or group. It is with great joy the I share my appreciation for her, the music she plays, and the songs the she sings." Reverend Ed Sears, Pastor Grace Baptist Temple Winston-Salem, NC
