funky world pop music 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details:

LAURA JANE; she is a singer, a writer, a dancer and an actress. She is multicultural, she is a thinker and a world traveller. Some might say she is a chameleon, a loner even, a free spirit with an open mind.

Whatever, the case may be or whatever one's perception may be, one thing is clear - she is an artist to watch with a one shot vision to conquer the world with her music. Having performed as a background singer with some of the greatest and most popular artists around , her credits reflect her passion for all kinds of music. Sharing the stage with people like Tre Hardson of the Pharcyde, Kim Hill, N'Dea Davenport of the Brand New Heavies, The Queen of Salsoul - Cecilia Noel, The Soul of John Black, Bosson, Jessica Simpson, Aaliyah, Monica, oldtimers NewBirth, Jada Pinkett Smith of WICKED WISDOM, The Alan Hewitt Project, saxophone extraordinaire Andre Delano and international superstar Enrique Iglesias, with whom she has toured the world as a featured vocalist in his concerts performing duets with him recorded by Whitney Houston and Kelis. LAURA JANE - now in her own voice is releasing her debut album TO MY PLANET, BOO! And Laura's planet includes every style of music and it is indicative on this record. "I didn't want to do what seemed to be an R B record, I wanted to incorporate rock, electronic, world music even. My original concept was a Sade meets Bjork". She then turned to friend and colleague Winston Black, probably Los Angeles's premier underground producer to concieve the record. Laura Jane's influence and love for true old school soul music is reflected in her vocal style captivated on such songs like THE BUZZ,, SUMMERTIME IN THE CITY and FEVER. Her thoughtful lyrics and messages are exemplified in two raw and earthy brazilian percussion tracks created by the Gilmar Gomes Percussion Orchestra on THE CALL and DOMINO EFFECT. Mr. Black, incorporating rock, electronica and funky dance music is reflected on DEAR RITA and LONELY SUNSHINE. The hot beat and arabic sound of

LAURA LEFT and the transient title track TO MY PLANET BOO give this record a little bit of everything for everyone. The only way to describe is funky world pop music. Purchase your copy of LAURA JANE'S debut album TO MY PLANET BOO! here today on CDBABY!
