"Bliss" has turned its kaleidoscopic gaze to the psychedelic world of fused pop. Mellow was formed in 2003 by Songwriter Rex Essex. With a deeply resonate voice that exuded a hundred different things at once -pain, joy, weariness, and decades of experience- Rex Essex created a small body of work that covers the world like paint. His music skillfully employs 60's keys with fuzzed out guitars and a sound that turns your head around and around. Marinated in influences as mind-splintering as the mushroom blast of Syd Barrett, David Bowie, and T-rex, Mellow's Bliss follows there path. A whispy bridge spanning the lushly trippy studio wizardry of The Beatles and the mindbending delights of Pink Floyd. Get your contact high from a safe distance with this intense, psycho-ridden passel of ones and zeros. "This is your brain. Now this is your brain on MELLOW".
