Details: The last thing I want to do is to try and trick anybody - you can find full streaming versions of every one of these songs, complete with lyrics, at yellowfair.com. If you want to buy a CD or download to listen to in your car or MP3 player, I like it, I wont complain!, but thats not the point of making up songs for anybody, or at least I dont believe thats why anyone bothers with it at the start. I cant churn out songs at a manic pace, and I cant sit down and write a good one whenever I feel like it - I just end up writing and recording music whenever I feel like I NEED to the closest thing I can compare it to is really having to get off in the worst way, even if the best available suitor is a trashcan lid, it has to go. Or like having to take a dump. Something not terribly pleasant to think on, but that feels a lot better when youre done. So I cant recommend it for dinner-music, and its never going to highlight anyones graduation. But ever since I began trying to write songs as a teenager, the goal / the people I was talking to, were the imaginary people that were just like me. I just wanted to write songs that I thought I would like if I heard them, but hadnt made them up myself. These are my best. I havent given up.
