LATIN: Latin Pop, URBAN/R&B: Funk Details: Dr. Vodkatini like putting together favorite sounds from the past filtered by their own unique soul - funky - lounge style and creating the urban soundtrack for metropolitan cities of the 21st century. The band is currently performing live in various hot spots in Greece while preparing their debut album. Logic Fusion Orchestra is remixing the track to a smooth deep house tune committed to take the club audience to the next level. Logic Fusion Orchestra have already released their debut 12" titled "Space Mosquito", also available from prominece recordings. This is a project of Salvatore Comi, the well known Athens, Greece, based DJ, who first became familiar with the local audience some decade ago, when started to spin-off in well known clubs and in some of the most popular radio stations, gaining mainstream success and underground respect. Nikko Patrelakis is remixing the "Vodka Bossa" track to drum'n'bass. Nikko was very proud to participate in the opening and closing ceremonies of the Olympic Games in Athens 2004. He composed and produced two themes, one for the Greek Flag and one for the Greek Team at the opening ceremonies on the 13th of August, as well as a theme for the Entrance of the Athletes at the closing ceremonies, on the 29th of August 2004. The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of England was recorded for the needs of the production.
