Details: Electric Mustards new colorful CD is a kaleidoscope of electronic and organic soundscapes. Kaleidoscope is a psychedelic creation of cinematic moods, crossing over into various genres and influences. Created by musician/composer/producer Mark Bonasera (Electric Mustard), Kaleidoscope shows off colorful, melodic and dreamy downtempo/chill-out songwriting with experimental sound art, a sound that often brings back the days of a late 1960s love-in. Mark has been involved in Chicago's music scene for many years. Formally trained first in percussion and later in piano. He studied music in college and has played with several Rock, Jazz Fusion and Big Band groups also including a short stint with the Elgin Symphony. He has written music for string quartet, choir, and organ and for the last 6 years his main writing concentration has been electronic music.
