Groovy euro-pop. Mix 2 parts Depeche Mode, 1 part Jamaraquia and a dash of Prince. Mix well and serve chilled. 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: From backyard pool parties to college and club gigs, Jadestone is cultivating fans from their home state of Florida and beyond. Jadestones music has best been described as transatlantic euro-pop joining the elements of soul, r&b and rock to form a seductive, melodic rock offering with intelligence and style. The music hints at the works of Depeche Mode, Jack Johnson, Maroon5 and John Mayer. The sensual european voice of frontman Yves Giraud, the passionate guitar work of Gary Titi and the techno grooves of Bryan Sussman, combine to form a unique and modern statement. The band has just finished up their newest cd days like these. The cd is full of groovy, euro-pop tinged music. The 2003 release by the band, "chocolate covered strawberries", is packed full of stylish euro-pop music. The cd was picked up for national distribution through BCD Music Group in conjunction with FYE music stores. The single Sunday morning was played on over 40 stations throughout the U.S. The single charted on New Music Weekly and the radio response was very positive. In the fall of 2001, Jadestone had their song Filthy selected to be used for department store Burdines Back to School campaign. The song was played in spots running throughout the state of Florida on numerous FM radio stations. In August 2001, the band closed a deal with Referenda Records that involves a United Kingdom distribution deal. Jadestone was awarded a prestigious grant, in 2002, from Jim Beam Distillers as part of the companies annual B.E.A.M. program. Jadestone keeps strong ties with several Florida radio stations and continues to expand their radioplay. Jadestone's live performances have garnered praise from both the industry and fans. The band was an opener for Sheryl Crow at West Palm Beach Floridas annual SunFest festival. Jadestone reached the semifinals of two national contests, including Bandemonium 2000 which gave them the opportunity to share the stage with Marcy Playground. The band plays live on a regular basis and continues to build a regional following. Jadestone was recently picked to join the Zippo Hot Tour series and had the chance to play several showcases for the event. Jadestone have hooked into the internet strong. Jadestone had a very successful 6 week run on the Broadband(formerly Billboard) Talent Net website where they achieved a #2 ranked slot. The band also achieved a #1 ranking on the now defunct MP3with their song Mama's Boy, along with 3 other songs in the MP3 Top40.
