Instinctive solo acoustic. A dash of blues and a handful of fingerpicking 15 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mature, BLUES: Guitar Blues Details: John B Slaby is a photographer, poet, and guitar player. He grew up listening to and has been influenced by many styles of music. Being attracted to the sound of the blues and finger picking, he started playing guitar at about age twenty. "I can't make it through the day without bending some strings". In 2004 John published his first book of poetry called, INFLEXATION- Poetry of Life. Check it out on his web site, slabypress.com He thinks writing poetry and playing music are similar in that it is created in the moment. "I play and make music for myself but hope others will like it as well". He hopes that listeners will enjoy the solo acoustic guitar music on his first CD, "WHITE WASH".
