Details: La Orquesta Brava and Kenny Quintero Biography ABOUT KENNY Born in Puerto Rico on May 1st of 1967, songwriter, composer, and Bassist for his own Salsa band Orquesta Brava. His father and grandfather both were Guitarist, and his uncles loved the Cuatro Guitar, (A Puerto Rican String folk instrument) his grandmother was a songwriter and composer for trio music. KENNY began his musical career in Puerto Rico as a percussionist. After moving to Florida, Kenny followed his inner voice and growing love for the Baby Bass creating a professional and talented Band known as Orquesta Brava. Kenny is now performing on the acoustic upright Bass with Orquesta Brava at the finest clubs, television performances and events in Florida. Orquesta Brava consists of 12 musicians who perform Salsa, Merengue, Bolero, Cumbia and Latin Jazz professionally. Orquesta Brava performs for crowds as large as 50,000 people Opening for most major events in Florida and many Multi-Cultural events, Corporate, Festivals, Convention Centers, Receptions, TV SHOWS LIKE EL MIKINBIN DE MIAMI, TELEFUTURA, AND SHOW TIME ORIGINAL SERIES DEXTER and many different venues. They perform their own original songs written by Kenny Quintero and also top charts music. Singing for Orquesta Brava are Bruno Miranda, Victor Del Rosario and Tito Sanchez (Ex-Vocalist For Macambila Band). Kennys talents and influences trace back to his roots and admiration for Puerto Rican music and many great musicians, like Hector Lavoe, Tito Puente, Bobby Valentin, Cachao, Eddie Guagua and other musicians that Kenny has worked along side like Flute Master Nestor Torres, which also has recorded with Orquesta Brava and is featuring in our CD Production: Rosas En Fuego, also featuring on this recording is percussionist legend Edgardo Morales (Internationally known for his recording El Timbalero with El Gran Combo) Another great influence for this album is the work done by Lefty Perez on vocals, among other great musicians, Robert Navarro on piano and many others. Kenny composed, wrote, and arranged the CD. Also available for recording, Bravo Recording Studio owned by Kenny Quintero and Orquesta Brava with Pro-Tools Digital Recording System. Telefutura Television network was the first to debut Orquesta Brava on its popular program El Miquinbin De Miami, with a live performance by the band. Kenny Quintero can be reached at (954) 899-3516 or (954) 255-3669. orquestabrava.com
