Roots Reggae African style with some special guest appearances like original World Beat innovators Chris Darrow and Chester Crill from the 60's band Kaleidoscope and the Rastafarians' Herb Daly. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: African Details: I went to South Africa in July 2005 to assist a friend Matt Doll in filming the Billibong Pro J-Bay surf contest and met a musician named James Vodicka from Chicago who let me sit in with his band. Apon learning I was a reggae drummer from Santa Cruz,Ca, he brought to my attention a band from a nearby township called the Roots Rockers. He also told me of a brand new ,never been used state of the art recording studio in close proximity to where I was staying. So he brought the band into the studio, where we met for a brief period, then proceeded to play. So the session was run rather quickly and in spite of the limited time and budget restraints,the songs came out wonderfully. These young Africans are not trying to sound like anybody else nor are they weather vanes, seeking which way the wind is blowing in terms of style or fashion. They just love music, are very poor, and hope this CD will help them further their way on their musical journey.They don't have much, but a whole lot of heart and Jah Love! They truly desire the world to hear their music!
