Question? What do you get when you mix the Lyrical Aggression of Tupac, with the Passionate Gangsterism of Scarface, added with Rakim Wordplay, in the sound of a Barry White Voice? Answer, ONE SON. 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast Details: Bobby Acres aka ONE SON, was born in Lanett Alabama, and moved to Brooklyn N.Y. at the age of eighteen to pursue a music career. After playing semi pro football for the Brooklyn Chargers he endured some hard times which led him into enlisting in the U.S. Army. The Army enabled him to live in various places such as Missouri, Virginia, Seattle, Atlanta, and Fort Worth TX. That gave him a four-corner outlook on how people live in different areas, and helped him incorporate these things into his music. While in Texas he met individuals who shared the passion for music as himself. He has released three underground cd's, and has opened up for numerous well known artist such as: Hieroglyphics, Craig Mac, Outkast, De La Soul, The Grave Diggers, Killa Mike, Public Enemy, and Blackstreet. While performing in Austin, TX. he was discovered by Maxine Lewis who is the segment producer for Amateur Night At The Apollo she liked his performance, and invited him to perform at The Apollo Theater. He received a standing ovation, and since have appeared in three independent films DIRTY SOUTH, RIFF, and ALMOST TIME. His latest release is called A POOR MANS TESTIMONY which features the single HEAR MY CRY. The video aired on BET UNCUT in July 2003, and have also aired on various independent video shows in Alabama, Atlanta, and Dallas. One Son is currently overseas in Iraq, and will soon be releasing his new project, based on his experiances in Iraq. One listen, and you'll see why there might be many stars, but there's only ONE SON.
