With Israel for Babies, infants will learn beauty and form of the music, they will be nourished by the sounds of their traditions and these gentle harmonies will soothe them. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Judaica, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: Music - an individual perception of vibrations. The same piece of music affects people in different ways. It is the art of combining sounds and silences to produces a sequence that transmits pleasant sensations to the ear. A state of the spirit is expressed and communicated to the listener. It is a uniquely human form of communication and is in many cases, the identity with which person of a nation or an ethnic group identifies itself. Cultures have passed down their traditions and heritage through the generations through music. The Jewish community in specific has always used music to communicate, usually during ceremonies. These cultural facts are the basis of the creation of Israel for Babies This special production has reunited the experience of two important artists: Adrian Perticone, experimented musician, who wants to pay tribute to his origins and Felix Pando, international artist with more than 20 years producing music for babies and the creator of Pando Babies . With Israel for Babies, infants will learn beauty and form of the music, they will be nourished by the sounds of their traditions and these gentle harmonies will soothe them.
