Hold tight on those reigns! P.J. Price just recently released her new "Movin' On" CD in March of this year. She pre-released a single called "Game of Life" which just went to #1 in the INDIEWORLD charts (July 1, 2008), beating out the famed group "LITTLE TEXAS" in the process! And to top it off, the song has been in the chart since January 25th! Watch for P.J.'s new radio release to be released in August! You'll be hearing more about this artist and her music! P.J. released her first album to the European market (per advise from her Nashville 'buddies') It gets MAJOR airplay which leads to "Album of the Year" "Best Female Indie of the Year " in 1994 as reported by the European Country Music Association. She also racked up "Star of Tomorrow 1994" as voted on by U.S. radio DJ's in the "Indie" market "International Star of 1995". This leads to a European tour and large International fanbase. At one point, P.J. had 4 (four) of her singles from this debut album that hit the Top '20' at the same time per the European - American - Asian Entertainment Network charts. That had never been done before, according to the CEO. P.J. makes a HUGE comeback with this CD... You can bet, whatever she does is sure to be a HUGE success and there's alot of people that have waited for it! P.J. personally wrote 10 of the 11 songs on this CD, showing her diversity not only in her writing style, but what she is capable of vocally! reviews from P.J.'s 'debut' CD.. also available here! author: Noel Schlachter P. J. Price's powerful vocals will captivate you. "Memory of You" will be in your memory a long long time. Noel Schlachter Wonderful CD author: Muriel I can describe P.J.'s cd in one word, "Wonderful". For those you who are not fans of country music, just give this album a listen, and you will definitely change your mind. Each song on there has such tender-hearted words, but yet is upbeat as well. So easy listening, and P.J. did a outstanding job on this album. I am so proud of her, and very lucky to have her as a very close friend! YeeHaaa P.J! author: Mike Johnson

WOW! WOW! And double WOW! When PJ called me last year to tell me that she was getting back into her music I was elated! I've personally known this dynamic personality and her family since 1994. When she decided to drop out of the music scene to tend to some personal matters, the music world lost a great voice. P.J. is a super combination of Loretta Lynn, Dolly Parton, Reba McIntire and "Little Miss Dynamite" Brenda Lee, yet so distinctly PJ! Whether it's a smooth love song, a crooning ballad, or a provocative teaser, when P.J. tackles a song, she owns it, lock, stock and barrel. Like Track No.1 "Well Enough Alone", Track No.2 "Take It From Me", or Track No.3 Runnin' On Love. P.J. is anything she wants to be! Don't let the fact that she only one of her own songs is on this CD. I've heard her songs and know for a fact that P.J.s finely honed writing skills paint vivid pictures that will give you a close encounter like nothing you've ever experienced. This album is one of my all-time favorites, not because it was given to me personally by P.J. way back when, but because it truly reflects a real God-given talent and the true versatility and uniqueness that is P.J. PRICE!!! Priceless indeed. We need about 5 more stars for this! I'm so proud of you my friend! FOUR "TOP TEN".... author: Bobby Farrell - Aavonica Licensing, Ltd. NOTE: Review from 1996 - Last Year, before upload costs went through the roof, I uploaded P.J. Prices' entire album into the Digital Libraries and she slammed FOUR songs into the 'top ten' request category all at the SAME time! I've never seen FOUR of the TOP TEN by the same artist, or even heard tell of it in over fifty years in this crazy business. (Enclosed report to verify it!) Miss "Taste-of-Texas" deserves only the very best! Priceless Records - Strong First Showing author: Songwriters Monthly Review Strong, Strong first showing from this Texas label! It's impossible to pick the album's highlights because EACH track 'sparkles', but be sure not to overlook the sizzling "TAKE IT FROM ME".... Don't Like Country? author: 1/2 Creeper (Paul) If you don't like country music, then P.J. Price will change your mind pretty quick! Her self-titled debut album, featuring 10 songs is highly enjoyable. She's only the 2nd 'country' artist to appear in the 1/2 creeper and her talent is the reason why! I think you'll like her... I know I do. "TOP TEN" author: Airplay International - Jason Hawkins/Nashville I call P.J. Price my 'Texas Lady', and aside from being a natural born sweetheart, the lady sings. Hear Me! SHE SINGS! I'm not sure why we haven't gotten together in the studio on a project. She says she wants to and Lord knows I want to, so someday we probably will. I consider P.J. as one of my "TOP TEN" artists! Great stuff from a local artist author: North of the Border - Texas Mega star, giant production. It is amazing the slight differences between CD's by (a) P.J. Price and (b) Reba McEntire. Both have great voices and their albums stay in a safe country territory. A fine mixture of ballads, a couple of 'bluesy' styled tunes and a self-penned 'swing' style song which P.J. wrote. Great stuff from a local artist! The "Lady" or the "Tiger" ...? author: Country Note Connection

There's a woman out there who stalks the European playlists with the prowess of a tiger on the loose and when she 'growls', the lady always captures her 'prey'. P.J. Price is queen of the INDIE jungle and the European DJ's 'pet' recording artist because she instinctively knows what songs work for her and puts them over with style, strong full vocals and something they used to call 'oomph'. Simply put, it's sexiness. With the exception of Bonnie Raitt or Mary Chapin Carpenter, few country female singers have it!
