GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Folkly Pop Details: Haven't you heard? Rosanna's new CD was released on September 16, 2006! The process began early in the year when she went to Nashville to record. The musicians on "haven't you heard ..." ended up being far above what Rosanna had originally expected. through the recommendation of a trusted friend, the engineer, Trey Gray brought in band members from Faith Hill and Brooks Dunn to play on Rosanna's new project. That's because Trey has played drums for Faith Hill for 11 years, and currently tours with Brooks Dunn! Also appearing on the record are two former members of Rich Mullins' band, Dove award winner Mitch McVicker, and Cobra Joe Curet. One highlight and honor for Rosanna was to record a version of Rich's "My Deliverer" which Mitch graciously sang with her. Her vocals were recorded later, and for the first time, she had the experience of having a small choir on two different songs. To Rosanna's delight, the CD was sent to Los Angeles and mixed by Grammy Award winnter Jim Watts, along with Jeffery David. Hans Dekline did the mastering and the whole record finally came together after a very long, character-testing road. The songs are new, fresh and and upliftingly joyful. "I was more than pleasantly surprised after compiling all the songs, that they are mostly songs of joy ..." Rosanna says pleasingly, "... the joy that only Jesus can give."
