Details: Scott Bircher began full time worship ministry in 1996. From that time until now, his focus has been to share the infinite love of Christ in an exciting and relevant way. Scott has participated in leading worship and speaking in well over 500 worship services across America with such artists as: Accappella, Kevin Spencer, The Bill Gaither Homcoming Friends, David Phelps and Vestal Goodman; along with appearances on TBN. He has also worked with well known speakers and columnists such as Janet Parshall and Cal Thomas. Scott has recently returned from a tour in Warsaw, Poland speaking and leading worship with "The Jesus Project Band" from Warsaw. His first CD release was in 2000, and was entitled Every Breath. This release received a review in Worship Leader Magazine in 2002. From January 2003 to July 2005, he led the Youth and Youth Music ministries at Centenary UMC in New Bern, NC. In 2003 he released his first radio single, Small Enough, which received national airplay. In 2005 he recorded his second full length album, All of My Love, released in early 2006. Currently Scott is the Saturday Worship Arts Coordinator at Covenant Church in Greenville, NC. Come check out an exciting and relevant worship experience through song, testimony and word. Saturday Night Worship meets weekly at 5:30pm. Covenant Church is located on the corner of Firetower and Corey Rds. in Winterville. connect2covenant.com
