Dark brooding ambience, found sound and electronica creating a soundtrack to your favourite dystopian dreams. 7 MP3 Songs in this album (27:09) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Electronica, AVANT GARDE: Experimental People who are interested in Current 93 Matmos should consider this download. Details: Following on from his self titled debut album, MoMT Records releases the new EP by Paul Mulholland aka Skink. 5475 Days is a journey into the more experimental realms of Skinks electronic soundscapes, taking in elements of drone, found sound, folk and dark ambience. The EP divided into seven parts is a highly emotional piece of work and expresses some deeper issues that have been lurking under the radar of Skinks psyche since the beginning of this musical project. The key tracks of the EP for us are the Last Post sampling Part II and the gorgeous Bibio meets Current 93 lament of Part VII
