Original rock and pop music inspired by Halloween, witches and horror movies. Great for parties, appropriate for all ages. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: "Combining three beloved staples of 60s pop culture the girl group, the beach party movie and the low-budget horror flick 'Witches in Bikinis' perform catchy and funny original songs, with arrangements heavy on the goofy rock/gothic sound." - Michael Dale, Broadwayworld- March 28, 2006. Song titles like "Subway Spooks", "Horror Flick Chicks", "Witches In Bikinis", "Hold Me, My Little Ghostie", and "Zombie March" belie the sophistication and subtlety of the underlying music and lyrics. Generally classified as "Visual Rock" or "Rock Theater", Witches In Bikinis is truly a genre unto itself. The CD was released in October 2005. Since then, Witches In Bikinis have performed at Kenny's Castaways in Greenwich Village; The Bowery Poetry Club, Arlene's Grocery, and The Delancey in Manhattan's Lower East Side; Galapagos Art Space and Southpaw in Brooklyn; Coney Island Boardwalk, and Don't Tell Mama on W.46th St. in Manhattan.
