Sports psychologist Kip Rigsbee feels like an outsider, not part of the players' circle and not accepted by the coaches of the college team he's been hired to help. But that hasn't kept him from feeling the gravitational pull of defensive coordinator Greg Browne, despite the fact that Greg dismisses Kip's methods as "motivational bullsh*t." An accident brings the unacknowledged attraction between the two men to the surface, but the common ground of their erotic connection may not be enough to help Kip overcome Greg's determination to keep his personal life separate from his job.
