Production Details: Aron Sandor Ambrus was born and raised in Zirc, Hungary in 1983 and moved to the USA with his parents in 1987. At the age of fifteen Aron began writing songs after a prophetic word was spoken over him during a night service at a local church he attended. "I remember this prophet telling me that I would begin to write songs about things that were going on in my life and things that are going on in other people's lives, and I would relate those things to the church and I would bring in a new sound, a new song for the church. At first when the man prophesied over me I thought he was crazy because I had never played any instrument but the congas and the drums. So that night after the service I went home and prayed about the word and soon enough I went out and bought a cheap guitar for about forty bucks and I begin to learn how to play it and then I began writing songs." His style is similar to Jeremey Camp, Hillsong, Matt Redman, Chris Tomlin to name a few. After Studying at Hillsong Bible College in 2003, Aron's songwriting grew even more and He began writing many songs for his local church in Modesto. Aron Ambrus, along with his wife Amber are now serving as part of the worship team in a local church in the Modesto area. Innocent Love is Arons first recorded studio album, which was recorded in San Jose, California. The songs are all originals written by Aron.
