Solo piano infused with jazz and classical influences delivered in beautiful lyric and melodic forms that will be enjoyed for generations. 12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Holiday music for every situation and enjoyed by every person at any age. Brad Vanlandingham has created an absolutely wonderful CD of traditional holiday carols. Brad's musical voyage began at the early age of four. Born in Oklahoma to a family of naturally talented singers and musicians, his exceptional gift for composition and quick grasp of the piano set his feet on a life long journey through the world of music. "Music Composition is the art I love. There is nothing more beautiful, comforting and fulfilling than listening to music that mysteriously expresses our deepest and inner most feelings." Taught in the tradition of classical and jazz while growing up from roots of Americana religious folk hymns, his compositions tell a story. Expressing deep personal emotions in an affecting and direct way. People are often spontaneously moved to laughter or tears at the simple moving beauty of Brad's works. Brad has had the good fortune to work with and learn from many well known artists through out his life. "Learning, growing, expanding, exploring is the wonder and substance of life in every way for me. Especially within the art of music. What better way to discover the depths of such a gift than to be with and share with others." "Enjoy the music!"
