Her sweet, sexy, sultry fusion of Pop, Rock and Blues is the perfect mood music. 10 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: Singing before she learned to talk, Carrie Clark is a natural on the stage. Growing up in the small town of Corvallis, Oregon left a lot to a child's imagination. Carrie spent much of this time listening to the radio and her parents' record collection. Her dad even set up his record player with a microphone so she could sing along with her favorite Glen Campbell or Crystal Gayle tunes. Carrie has since moved from the living room fireplace to the local stages of Seattle and hasn't turned back. Performing on the guitar and piano, Carrie's captivating voice is the forefront of her music and travels from power to tenderness in one breath. Incorporating a wide variety of musical influences into her sound, she creates a soulful musical experience that crosses through pop, country and jazz. Backed by bassist, Dayna Smith, guitarist, Greg Fulton and drummer, Larry Bichler, Carrie performs regularly in Oregon and Washington and tours nationally. A Seattle resident and an active performing member of the international organizations GoGirls Music and Indiegrl, Carrie is featured regularly at the Northwest Folklife Festival and at the GoGirls Music Invasion of SXSW in Austin, Texas. Since she released her second CD, "Reverie," Carrie has been receiving national and international radio play, performing regularly in Seattle and touring nationally. She has been recently featured on local NPR radio station KUOW's "The Beat" and KGRG's "Out of the Box" as well as several local and national media publications. Carrie returned from a successful tour through the southwest this spring and is now working on her third self-release CD due out later this year. Carrie has shared with the stage with Al Stewart ("Year of the Cat"), Two Loons for Tea (Grammy nominees), David Garza, Jill Cohn, Zyah Ahmonuel (The Whispers), Ted Wald (Charlie Parker), Kellee Bradley, Will Dowd (Jessica Lurie, Hanuman), Reggie Garrett, John Bush (Foamy, Edie Brickell The New Bohemians), Matt

Chamberlain (Tori Amos, Critters Buggin), Arne Livingston (Living Daylights), Brad Houser (Edie Brickell
The New Bohemians, Critters Buggin), Skerik (Critters Buggin), Susan Robkin, and Ben Smith (Heart).
