The nuance of Cassandra Wilson with the intensity of Laura Nyro. Gutsy, literate, acoustic rhythm and soul. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, POP: Folky Pop Details: A native New Yorker with a penchant for the coasts, Caryn Kupferman started performing when she was a teenager, busking in Harvard Square and San Francisco. Save for a brief stint in L.A. singing standards with a jazz trio, she spent the next few decades avoiding the stage, but continued to write songs in between pesky day jobs and full time life. In 2005, she was given an opportunity to work with producer Evan Brubaker (Holly Figueroa, Edie Carey, Kym Tuvim) on her first cd release; Pitch Black Mile. The album features improvisational arrangements by Eyvind Kang (viola), Joel Litwin (percussion), Chris Welch (keyboards), Paul Gabrielson (upright bass), and Paul Elliott (violin). She lives in the Pacific Northwest.
