Acoustic/Electric, roots based rock with a twist, this 18 song cd, which includes bonus tracks from previous releases, has been called "thoughtful, no-holds-barred, bright, and honest" by critics. 18 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, ROCK: Americana Details: The Don Lewis Band's latest release, Between the Lines," produced by gold and platinum award winning producer Peter Moshay, captures the energy and lyrical range that the band has built it's reputation on. They follow the belief that their fans and the music are all that matter. Don Lewis has been chosen a Hot Pick artist by national industry journals like FMQB, called a "great" songwriter by The Songwriters Monthly, applauded by Consumable On-line for his songs and live shows, and praised by Belgium's RockReport Magazine (yes, the country) for his outstanding material. He is also endorsed by radio stations throughout New York's Hudson Valley region and beyond into the tri-state region. WDST radio in Woodstock, NY, has supported the bands music with live on-air broadcasts and critical acclaim. WSUL radio says he is a "Great Artist!" In 97', he was named by WPYX in Albany as a Capital Land top artist. Other regional stations like WKZE, Sharon, CT have supported Don's music with radio play, critical acclaim, and on-air interviews. Called the "hardest working performer around" by WSPK's Terry Donovan, Don proves that his cross market appeal continues to grow. In 98' The Don Lewis Band was introduced at "A DAY IN THE GARDEN" in Bethel, NY by WPDH.
