A treasury of traditional dances and airs from Northern Lands featuring folk harp and flute 12 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Traditional Folk, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Greensleeves is Seattle's premier Celtic and Nordic music duo on harp and flute. Both members, Beth Koll and Susan McLain, perform on harp, flute and whistle. This is great fun when they play wedding receptions together, as they can trade off when they get tired of one instrument! Beth Koll performs and presents workshops on harp, flute and whistle, and sings in Norwegian, Swedish and Gaelic. She also teaches Scandinavian folkdance and song at festivals and retreats around the United States. Susan McLain, who plays concert pedal harp, lever harp and Irish flute and whistle, is well-known as Seattle's premier wedding harpist. Weaving Olden Dances, their first album, brings together all their most requested dances, airs and songs from the Old World. With an exquisite blend of textures and harmonies, the harp and flute complement each other in this treasury of favorite tunes.
