Electronic beats, keyboards, orchestral instruments, and natural sounds all combine to create a sound that is both atmospheric and soundtrack like in nature 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes Details: Hummingbird Recall was created in the Spring of 2006 as an experimental electronic soundtrack project based on visual concepts. The project is made up of two members from the band BloodSexDrive (Ratprick, The Matt Bastard). Programmed beats are combined with keyboard synthesizers, various orchestral instruments, and natural sound to create a sense of environment or to act out a scene. The debut album, "Non-stop service to 8 locations", is open to interpretation, but each song had its own visuals in mind at the time of creation. Track titles provide clues and are meant to guide the listener toward the intended imagery, but veering off course is also acceptable.
