You can rock down the highway to "Rockin' Little Honky Tonk Band" and the rock ballad "Across The River". Musicians will like the later with it's Danelectro Baratone prelude and long garage band jam at the end. Or you can bounce to the Country Blues sounds of "The Down and Out Blues" and the party sounds of "One More Round". For the more traditional taste check out "Beer Drinker's And Hell Raisers ('Till The Day We Die)" It will take you back to the good ole boy days of Moe Joe. "Shell Of A Man" with it's lonesome Pedal Steel Guitar is for the traditonal hardcore country fan. The Buck Owens inspired arrangement defines what a good country ballad should be. Heartacke, Harmony, Steel Guitar. A highlight of the album is the R&B sounding "You Are A Miracle". A tribute to devotional love, the ballad features an awesome vocal performance, and a guitar lead and tone that's this side of blues guitarist Gary Moore. Another showcase song is the spiritual "A New Pair Of Wings In Heaven". Based on true life experiences, the song was written by the band's lead guitarist Eddie Groves, to provide comfort in the passing of a loved one. Today's New Country is also represented well on "No Boundaries". "Weekend Rendezvous" "Love of A Woman" really signifies Inside

Out's unique Southern Fried Twang sound. A sound that blends all the bands influences into one. Last, but not least, is the bonus demo song "This Time America's Not Playing Around". The home recorded song is a patriotic anthem for America's war on terrorism. Written just days after the 9/11 attacks and released months before Toby Keith's "Angry American", "This Time America's Not Playing Around" was a top download on Inside Out's former MP3webpage. The song is Southern Fried Twang with ATTITUDE!! Not only is the disc full of great tunes, but the CD itself looks cool. A retro 45 RPM record design that will take you back in time.
