R&B contemporary urban gospel with flavors of jazz and funk 15 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Kevin Macklin's debut solo album is a powerful mix of styles and musicianship supported by a cast of veteran all star musicians. This album is world class. Kevin was introduced to music as a young child when his mother would sit him on her lap during choir rehearsal in Baltimore Maryland, his hometown. This laid the foundation for his his love music. He started performing all around town and a few years later the doors at the Baltimore School of the Arts were opening and Kevin was more than excited at the new possibilities. He studied classical music and the fundamentals of jazz. After graduating he went to Baldwin-Wallace College in Ohio, but his musical soul craved for more adventure, so he applied to the presigious Berklee College of Music and received a performance scholarship. Upon his arrival he joined the gospel choir and his peers were surprised when they heard the warm smooth silk of his baritone voice, The ability to sing has given him the opportunity to tour and record with artists like Donnie McKlurkin, Brian McKnight, Lalah Hathaway, Tevin Campbell, Walter Beasley, Harry Connick Jr., Ice T, Philip Bailey, and Delfayo Marsalis. Kevin hopes to share his joy of God and music with everyone all over the globe. Executive producer, Craig Brown
