"The Peoples Poet", is a Miami Born Native whose poetry seems to reach not just some, but all of the people who are privy to hear his work. During the year of 1997, he began writing seriously after seeing the effect that Poetry had on a troubled youth in a Juvenile Justice program for which he was working at the time. He has been writing and performing ever since. But that, for him, was not enough. Along with the accompaniment of original musical sound tracks and creative skits, Leroy captivates his listeners, with what he and his associates deem "NEO POETRY". With the release of his Debut C.D. entitled "Lyrical Suicide", Leroy has established a position of acceptance as a poet in not only South Florida but throughout the poetic community. While juggling the responsibilities of being a dedicated husband and father, Leroy intends on captivating his poetic audience in venues throughout South Florida and abroad. One of South Florida's top Poets, Renea L Moss has been quoted as saying, "Leroy Stringer has a voice that commands being listened too". Leroy's new C.D., "Lyrical Suicide" will surely confirm her belief. He has presence and his material has depth, yet simplicity. His delivery is that of a seasoned professional. He will no doubt establish himself as a formidable trend setter amongst his poetic peers.
