SPOKEN WORD: Audiobook, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: DEAR KILROY reminds us that some of the best teachers in this world have four legs and bark. Nora Vitz Harrison weaves the tender and wise humor of Kilroy and Riley, two canine correspondents, among heart-tugging essays on the magical relationship between people and dogs. The musical score from Rebecca Kragnes adds mood and depth to the authors heartfelt reading. Even if you have never been owned by a dog, you will be moved by this joyful yet bittersweet guide to life. Read by the author with music by Rebecca Kragnes. Sales of this CD set benefit service-dog schools and animal-welfare organizations. Qualifying organizations that would like to use DEAR KILROY as a fund raiser should contact the author. Who is Kilroy? Kilroy, a yellow Labrador retriever, started life as a potential guide dog. His life took a detour when he was dropped from the training program and adopted by Alice, the authors sister. Kilroy failed to become a guide dog, but he became Alices guide as she made her way through a difficult time in her life. Kilroy reminds us that success takes many forms. Kilroy and Alices story is just one of seventeen tales that chronicle a few special canines from guide dogs to adopted-from-the shelter mutts and the human lives they changed. A thoughtful gift for any animal lover. What the critics say: Nora Vitz Harrison chronicles inspirational true stories via the canine correspondence between Kilroy and Riley. Publishers Weekly ...funny, heartwarming ... Recommended (with a tissue alert). Library Journal ...
