Sweet dark twilight morning light music from Vancouver's Chanteuse. featuring members of the Be Good Tanyas and re-released with two additional live tracks. "Delicate guitar and a voice that could melt butter combine to give an album that sounds like it w 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Alternative Folk, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Ora Cogan "Ora's voice possesses that haunting, soulful quality that seems like its source is coming from deep deep within or beyond. Like a mysterious transplant from decades past, it's as though she opens her mouth and a lilting voice from the '20s comes drifting out. Aquarius Records Daughter to a Singer and a Photo Journalist, Oras house was also a recording studio and her Family played host to a constant stream of musicians and travelers. Ora started writing songs and performing at 12. Last spring Ora recorded Tatter with the help of John Raham, Frazey Ford and Trish Klein of The Be Good Tanyas. At first Ora made each copy by hand out of old record sleeves and sold them off the stage. "Tatter" is now re-released with two additional live tracks.
