Will Ackerman Founder of Windham Hill Records "Please excuse what I am about to say, but when I first played Stephen DiJosephs CD for several different industry folks, the first thing they said was "This guy is a @$#ing genius!" Expletive or not, I have to agree. His performance on this CD is both startling and inspiring. I first saw Stephen play in Philadelphia at a showcase, and couldn't believe what I was seeing live.What followed was sheer brilliance. Complex, bold, powerful, awe inspiring piano performances and arrangements. The kind of pianistic authority I've not witnessed before....one of the most AMAZING artists we at JPFolks have discovered" Brian Austin Whitney - founder JPFolks International Music Network "...accessible brilliance ...what Stephen does with rhythm and tone color is simply amazing... Al Foster Songwriters Monthly Magazine "Very nice disc indeed. Matter of fact, it will see dual duty here at 90FM on JazzSides and future editions of the New Age Sampler. very involving for the listener, drawing one into the music, the almost lyrical voicings and touch are uncanny in their ability to recreate the space and staging of the piano and the intended emotional involvement. BEAR Host/producer of the Jazz Sampler, WWSP 90FM, Stevens Point WI "...DiJoseph plays with a keen sense of melody and fire...He displays a flair for complex melodic songwriting. His songs are often beautiful, but they also possess an attuned sense of drama and tension...Dijoseph is obviously a skilled pianist and a talented songwriter" Dan Short Casco Bay Weekly Maine "Stephen DiJoseph is , in a word , vision...a light that shines nearly to bright to see. So look away, but you can't stop listening! What could replace him in my CD player? No, nothing could supplant him. If you have ears you won't regret finding a way to make PIANOPOETRY a part of your collection of musical art." Fan review
