WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: Island Details: In the reggae world full of fierce competition, arises S.T.O.R.M! Lenny Kurlou and Monsoon captivate their listeners and audiences with their own unique styles that blend together to form a wicked singer/DJ collaboration. The two have been compared to Outkast in reggae music and a style where Peter Tosh meets Capleton. With thick instrumentation behind them, their styles touch upon dancehall, roots and culture flavor. S.T.O.R.M. has been the winner of several awards in the last few consecutive years that include Best Band of the Year, Best Male Singer and Best DJ. Superior singer/songwriter/producer, Lenny Kurlou, brings the flavor of a smooth operator with the diversity of his voice and captivating lyrics. Born in Cockburn Pen, Jamaica, Lenny Kurlou began his singing career early in life and has opened for artists such as Beres Hammond, Beenie Man, Bounty Killer, and the late Notorious B.I.G. Songwriter/Singer/DJ, Monsoon, born Denton Bedward, comes out of Clarendon, Jamaica. Lyrically his verses are pure fire as he commands the attention of the audience with his strong stage presence and gripping vocals. Monsoon has blazed opening shows for artists that include Elephant Man, Capleton, Luciano, and Steel Pulse. Currently, S.T.O.R.M. is working alongside Anchor and Mixing Lab Studios in Kingston, Jamaica, Marlon "Pyrona" Cooke, co-producer of Sean Paul's album, "The Trinity", and Powermix Records Entertainment Group, Inc in Brooklyn, NY. Their track on the latest Riddim Driven Project, "Love Justice" titled, "Call me" will be released late fall of 2006. S.T.O.R.M.s Limited Edition EP, will available August of 2006 and includes the hit songs, Gimmie di Treez and Hola Hola!. The anticipated full album, titled Eye of di S.T.O.R.M. was mixed at Anchor Studios, in Kingston, Jamaica and co-produced by Nigel Burrell, producer of I-Waynes hit, Cant Satisfy Her and Richie Spices hit, Earth A Run Red will be available early 2007. Also watch for S.T.O.R.M.s hot new video of Hola Hola! which will be released in August of 2006. S.T.O.R.M.s chemistry is like no other authentic reggae collaboration. Be on guard, DI STORM COMETH!!
