Christmas songs that tell what Christmas really is about. The birth of our Newborn King, Jesus Christ. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Bernard Phyllis grew up listening to the likes of Don Reno Red Smiley, Mollie O'Day, Lester Flat, and Wilma Lee Stoney Cooper. Both were born into musical families and began singing at an early age. Phyllis was born in Raleigh County, West Virginia where she sang as part of "The Starcher Family" with her mother and sisters. They appeared at many local churches and talent events. In the early 60's, they were featured on WHIS TV in Bluefield, WV. Bernard was born in Giles County, Virginia and began singing in church at the age of 4. He went with his mother and father to many area churches. This is where he met Phyllis and the rest as they say, is history. They began singing together because of a benefit. They soon were singing at nursing homes, festivals and churches. Eventually the requests for their old time gospel music became so numerous that they felt it was time record an album. Crossing the River - Recorded in 1997 and dedicated in memory of their fathers, Kermit White and Jess Starcher. This cassette featured such tracks as "Who Would Believe", "White Oak on the Hill" and "Let Me Walk Lord By Your Side". This album won The Trailblazer's Award at the 1997 Airplay International Award Show in Nashville, TN. Daddy's Crown - In 1998 they recorded their first CD. It features the title track "Daddy's Crown" and "Mother's Birthday". Daddy's Crown was released on Col. Buster Doss's Stardust International Compilation #16 in April '98. All songs were written by The White's. This CD won the Song Writer's Award in Nashville, TN. The Golden Years - Released in 1999.
