DOWNLOAD HERE

Bluesy April Hall collaborates with jazz pianist composer Pamela Hines and her trio for a set of original mainstream jazz tunes. 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo Details: Jazz pianist/ composer Pamela Hines was greatly influenced by George Russell. Her debut CD "9-45" earned her critical acclaim in 1998 and since that time she has been on many CDs, including her 2006 release, "Drop 2." "Hall Sings Hines" features Boston area jazz sensation April Hall. Hall is the perfect match for the Hines originals and attacks each tune with intensity and depth. Hines, who grew up in the Boston area, has been a sought-after composer for jazz vocalists and puts together an eclectic line-up of tunes on "Hall Sings Hines." Some tunes are light and others are deeper and more complex. She was a guest on Piano Jazz with Marian McPartland in 2000 and continues to perform for audiences across the country. Hines earned a MM from New England Conservatory in 1998. She has recorded with Jerry Bergonzi, Miles Donahue, Darren Barrett, Bob Moses, Bob Guilotti, John Lockwood and Brian Torff. Hall earned a degree from Berklee and has written her own album of tunes. She works with both jazz and blues bands and is a regular at Les Zygomys in Boston.
