"From Sussex County, NJ, New York, Utah, Nevada, Nashville and every place in between, performing and singing country music is the best way I can think of to spend my time with great friends, good music, and a whole lot of dancin'! Cindy Lu is honored to be a part of country music and plans to be singing as long as she is breathing. "Country is a place inside you, not where you live. God gave me the gift of singing, and country music has provided me a home. I'd like to share that gift and to bring a smile to the faces of as many people as I can."
