"Holy Fire" gets you out of your seat with its snaggy melody, compelling rythms and tight harmonies. it's simply a joyous celebration of God's love." (Reviewed By: Stan North - Gospelflava.com) "You can be sure to receive maximum spins here at our station my brother. The anointing is on your voice." (DJ Norris, The Gospel Express-WMLN 91.5 FM Milton, MA /WEZE-590 AM) ------ Ever so often in this journey called life, you've come across people who radiate with charm, humility, personality and a sense of knowing what they want from life. Delroy Souden is no exception. Delroy has done quite well in the gospel music arena. He's shared stages with some of gospel music's stellar artists including Natalie Wilson (S.O.P Chorale), Tonex, Ray Bady, Londa Larmond, Youth Edition, Eastern Michigan Mass Choir and Christopher "Play" Martin to name a few. In July of 2002 Delroy performed at the International Urban Music Conference in Chicago, Illinois to great response and a packed house. Delroy has ministered to audiences all across the United States and Canada. He has entered and won Silver, Gold and Bronze medals in national music competitions and has song with several groups and choirs. In November of 2001, Delroy released his debut maxi single "Holy Fire" on his own label, En Sound Entertainment to raved reviews and has been interviewed by radio personalities throughout the Northeast. Delroy does numerous concerts each year. He has been featured in the Love Express Christian Newspaper as the local artist for the month of April 2002, and was humbled that he was chosen given the fact that his full-length project had not yet been released. Delroy has
