He is the son of a preacher. He began singing at the tender age of three years old with his brothers for his father's Thursday Night Revivals. His voice grew in strength and skill while he sang in his formulative years. Eric balances his life as a servant of God, friend to man and a devoted husband. He serves in several capacities for the Lord at Glad Tidings C.O.G.I.C., in Detroit. Eric is a former member of the recording group, Derrick Starks and Today's Generation. While with this group, he sang as lead vocalist on the title cut, "Back with Him" and traveled nationally with the group to the Dr. Bobby Jones show. Eric has ministered on stage with the likes of Vanessa Bell-Armstrong, Kim Burrell, Karen Clark-Sheard, Ron Winans, Aretha Franklin, Fred Hammonds and Vickie Winans. Currently, Eric is a signed solo artist for Churchouse Records. He sang three songs on the compilation project, "In the Beauty of Holiness," which is featured on his newly released solo project, "LARGER THAN LIFE." The first single on his newly released project, "If You're Going Through" was released to radio to positive response as sales of the album continues to climb. This thirteen-track project is geared to become a favorite to any listening audience. With Christ centered lyrics, old school and urban flows, Eric shows that he is no ordinary vocalist as he delivers each song with his own style, though he sometimes reminds the listener of John P. Kee and Desmond Pringle. His rich vocals and smooth delivery makes this project a real keeper. The song "If You Are Going Through" catches the attention right from the start and as you continue to listen, you'll be swept away by meaningful lyrics, good arrangements quality listening and the message in each song that will minister to your very being. This project has a song for everyone, whether you like old school, urban or worship. "Larger than Life" will take you to a place of praise, worship and celebration. Eric will minister to the heart and soul of those willing to listen. Gospel music has room for another great voice, and that is the voice, music and ministry of Eric Deon, The Superman of Gospel! The result was his 2003 release Larger Than Life, a fine album that straddles a number of styles, from classic soul to traditional Gospel to New Jack to Blues, and even a few jazzy turns, but with a lyrical content that is unapologetically spiritual. While the uptempo material is interesting, Deon particularly shines on the ballads "Die For You" and "Read About Me." Also interesting are the spoken interludes. Worth checking out. ensoundentertainment.com I am about to introduce to you a young man with a voice that commands the listener's attention. The man with such a voice is Detroit's own Eric Deon. Eric is one of the newest addition to the gospel music scene, though he is no rookie, this brother's ministry started way back as far as he can remember. He is destined to make a mark on the gospel music industry with his debut release on the Churchouse Records label, called "Larger Than Life". The first single, "If You're Going Through" was released to radio to positive response as sales of the album continues to climb. This thirteen track project is geared to become a favorite of all who hears it, with it's Christ centered lyrics, old school and Urban flows, Eric shows that he is no ordinary vocalist as he delivers each song with his own style, though he sometimes reminds me of John P. This project as something on it for everyone, whether you like Ol' Skool, Urban or Worship. "Larger Than Life" will take you to a place of praise, worship and celebration. Eric will ministers to the heart and soul of those willing to listen. Gospel music has room for another great voice, and that is the voice, music and ministry of Eric Deon. gospelflava.com/reviews-brief3.html#ericdeon Native Eric Deon steps out from Derrick Starks and Today's Generation with a solo project that shows promise in abundance. Larger Than Life has him offering up thirteen original songs in the contemporary vein. Deon's strength is heard easiest in songs where his vocals are front and centre. The contemplative "Read About Me" is stellar, as is the Sunday morning rework of "You Brought Me From A Mighty Long Way". Over complex organ finesse of Greg Pearson, Deon soars on "I Have The Faith". With pipes that have that appealing smoothness but with enough of churchy edge, Eric Deon is in position to become one of the industry's voices of the future.
