Contemporary urban Details: Who is this newest FUNK DYNAMO, that his music can be funky but not just funk, jazz, hip hop, or R&B... what about alternative, or neo-soul? FAMOS!, whose influences range in music royalty from Prince, George Clinton, Michael Jackson, Stevie Wonder, Babyface, Teddy Riley, and R.Kelly, among other greats. From the first track, The FunkBox embraces you and never lets go! You will party and dance, fall in love and make love, feel his spirit and get personal, u will cry feel-good tears. FAMOS! engulfs you in his sound like no other. This is a real experience, a celebration, a fantastic voyage in2 the greatest unexplored crevice in music history: The FunkBox! FAMOS! delivers a sound unheard before, not just different, but GOOD, PURE and EXCITING! FAMOS! has captivated all genres of audiences across the Midwest, performing at Chicago's own Excalibur, Park West, The Black Orchid, Grant Park, Soldier Field, and The Rosemont Convention Center! His super explosive high energy and contagious fun character has won over both kids and adults enough to reserve his talents through the year 2009! FAMOS! digs deep into the community, participating as The Master of Ceremony at the Kidney Foundation's annual walk, Lutheran General Hospital's Children's brain tumor and cancer holiday parties and special events, Jump Rope for Heart and so many other charities and organizations! He's also a motivational speaker at schools weekly empowering kids through music. FAMOS! is Chicagoland's hottest commodity following in the footsteps of his musical heroes, creating his own hybrid legend in music, with visions of being one of the most in-demand songwriter/producers and singer/performers heard on almost every type of radio station. What a goal!!! Even today as he writes and produces tracks for local Chicagoland artists and studios, FAMOS! also sets his sights on scoring movie soundtracks. Deeply rooted in the church throughout his youth, his passion for music budded in the choir. From his work at Bizar Entertainment, FAMOS! cultivated his warm and inviting stage presence. Currently, he attends The Harper College Music Academy studying both classical and jazz piano. This is the beginning of a new music revolution. Get ready. . . getFAMOS!
