The Wolf is a symbol of Power! A Symbol of standing alone and facing the odds with stamina and perseverance of survival. It is a symbol of Family Unity and Dominance over it's Environment. The wolf knows what to do intuitively each day to bring all these things to fruition. Every day is the, "Day of the Wolf". For the Beautiful Wolf lives in the here and now. Let me take you deep into Southern New Mexico and into my own "Mescalero Apache" Nation. The music cuts deep to the core. The music makes you feel good inside and you are rejuvenated and refreshed. I have some really great beats and tempos on this album. It will surely get your blood moving. This CD Album is just over 60 minutes duration. Vocals are in English and "Mescalero Apache" mixed with Western White Mountain Apache. I could go on and on about this album since there is so much history involved and behind it. This album goes back as far as I can go with my ancestry which is the year, 1535 AD. But, I would honestly have to say, I have dedicated the album to not only my people but also to my, Great Grandfather and Grandfather (the wolves) who were both in the Sierra Madre Mountains (Copper Canyon - Mexico) after the War stopped in 1886 when Geronimo surrendered. Especially to my Grandfather who came back to the United States in the early 1920's with my Grandmother by his side. I dedicate this Album to them. More Detail Information: People from around the world simply love this Album. This is one of those kinds of albums that you will let your friends and love ones hear. Then they'll ask you, "Who does that?"... Yeah, it is one of those kinds of albums. It is feel good inside yourself music that re-kindles the Native

Heart. Let my own passion for my people embrace you with my Native Ancestry. You will feel the Spiritual Powers Embrace you song after song. Now, are you ready for some Good Powerful Music?
