A contemporary fusion of rock, swing, and pop. With a sense of swing history. And a sexy sense of humor. 6 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Swing/Big Band, POP: Party Pop Details: Hep deHopcat is a swing singing, cartoon hep cat with a great new sound. Backed by the Hell's Kitchen Zoot Monsters he brings a fusion of rock, swing, and pop he calls HepHop. Hep is the coolest of cool cats. In fact, hes a bit of a wild cat who really likes the dollies. As a bandleader, hes cut from the Cab Calloway mold. As a dancer, Hep is somewhere between Frankie Manning and Fred Astaire. Like some other 90s cats with a music jones in their bones, Hep deHopcat grew up on recycled rock . Hep took his shot at hip hop, where where he was known as Grandmaster Jiggycat. Hep rhymed and styled and gangstad wild. He was so far down he had Tommys name on everything but his brain. Eventually, Hep had his fill of rap, and starting listening for some sound that had something more going for it. Other than eye-buggin on Shania Twain videos, Hep couldnt get down with either rock or country. Thats when he met this sweet thing who was into swing. Her name was Dollie and she appealed to his animal instincts. Yee-ow, and how! This sexy young lady took him to the Hep Hop Nightclub and introduced him to the magic of swing -- from Basie to Bee-Bop. From two-toned shoes to pork-pie hats. From pretzels to aerals. He got so far into it, he connected with a group of ax murders who went by the tag of the Zoot Monsters. With them as his band, he made this six-pack EP.
