Details: Netherlands based blues/rock guitarist/singer/songwriter JP Stingray returns with ANOTHER great set of rockin blues flavored tunes with his latest release All Around Man. Indeed, he is quite the all around man as once again JP writes all the songs, plays all the instruments, provides all the vocals, and serves as an ever improving sound engineer over the entire project. His recordings are all enjoyable with each being just a little bit better than the last. Hot guitar licks, excellent original tunes, good vocals, and rock solid rhythm here just as in all of his other recordings as well. You cannot go wrong with any of his recordings, but especially with All Around Man, as each and every track is top notched. JP Stingray continues to be our very favorite one man band.
