Charlotte Church meets Donna Summer 5 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Krissy grew up in the church in Boston and was taught about God since childhood, but had never developed a personal relationship with Him. I loved the Lord, but wasn't really in love with Him, and there is a distinct difference. However, Krissy had a spiritual awakening in 2002 that caused her to recommit herself to Christ and to pursue after His will for her life. Once I told the Lord that I would go anywhere and do whatever He wanted me to, He began to show me that He wanted me to use the songs He had given me to spread His message to the world. This was the last thing that I thought I would or could ever do, because of paralyzing fear, doubt and insecurity. But, He reminded me that it is not by power or by might but by His Spirit, that I am just the vessel the means to carry His message and to bring glory to His Kingdom and that perfect love casts out fear. Despite her fears, Krissy continued to step out in faith, remembering God's Word and standing on His promises. She became worship leader at one of the services at her church in Boston and immediately saw how God was using her to minister to others. The more I stepped aside and let the Lord take over, the more I saw His strength made perfect in my weakness. Next, the Lord began to call Krissy out of her comfort zone, and she and her family relocated to Charlotte. None of us knew the exact reason for the move, but we were obedient to the Lord's leading. Shortly thereafter, Krissy began to discover many new and exciting ministry opportunities. Krissy began singing The National Anthem at several Charlotte Knights AAA baseball games, which helped her gain experience and exposure in public venues. She also joined a group called, Voices in Praise, and began ministering the gospel through song to the homeless, needy, widowed, elderly and lost in the local community. God used her to bless His people, increase her faith and trust in Him, and more importantly, strengthen her desire to evangelize and to share the gospel with the world. The lamp of the body is the eye; therefore if the eye is good, the whole body will be full of light. (Matt 6:22) The good eye looks for the will of God that the body may be filled with the presence of God, who is light, and it places greatest value on things that cannot pass away. The evil eye is full of darkness and looks for things of the world. This has been the theme for WINDOWS TO THE SOUL, a 5-song EP of Contemporary pop, flavored with note-worthy hints of R & B, soul, funk and gospel, interwoven with the Word of God, and communicated with a passionate, engaging and heartfelt approach, scheduled for debut on September 22, 2006. With love and thanksgiving to God for His saving grace and transforming power, these songs were birthed in Krissy Gordons heart. Krissys lyrics compel people to deep dig within their souls and to seek the meaning and purpose of their lives. The message of Krissys music is beautifully and contemporaneously communicated as the light of God radiates from her music and penetrates into the deepest part of mankinds soul -- compelling them to make a decision that will ultimately affect the outcome of their destiny. We can live in the world but not be part of it. This is a journey not a destination. We can choose to go along for the ride or we can take a stand and pursue the things of God that He has pre-ordained and pre-destined for each of us. Krissy continues to soar on her journey, taking the Lord by the hand and following Him as He leads her to new heights, new depths and new horizons. Its exciting to see what the Lord has in store for me next. May my eyes always be opened to see His truth, my ears always open to hear His call, and may my mouth always profess the love of God, which is in Jesus Christ, our Lord.
