acoustic rock with a twist of folk and country, bluesy vocal, great acoustic and electric guitars, lovely fiddles, indie attitude 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: European girl on American soil.... Slovakia-born, New Jersey based singer-songwriter, Miriam Stavola, writes in English and her native Slovak language. Switching from classical piano to rhythm guitar unleashed her writing skills in her own style of acoustic rock with a twist of folk and country blues. She is mostly a recording artist, spare on public performances, who always finds her way to the studios of the best instrumentalists. The featured CD was recorded in 2003 in her home town in central Slovakia with her old buddies - guitarists Richard Guzak, Jozef Sedlacko, guitar and harmonica player Jozef Chlupecky, drummer Peter Cvengros and bluegrass guitar and fiddle player Tono Smatana. - best track #4 (heavenly guitars by Richard Guzak) - braking rules #2 (tempo change, country to hard rock) - funny (or not if you fit the profile) #5 - hard rock #6 - a capella #7 come see live shows: 10/23/05 (Sun) - 6:00 - 10:00 PM - Singer Songwriter night at High Street Grill, Mount Holly, NJ. Hosting the night, featuring Sharis, David St. James, Laura King, Nan Ivins, Norman Tylor, Roz King and more... new CD finished, getting wrapped...
