Details: "There was no doubt that Moossa's first release Last Night was a great collection of blues, roots rock, and reggae. But the proof is in the pudding with their sophomore effort, Get Away. Moossaheads will be happy to hear that the formula hasn't changed in the last year, but the band's rootsy gumbo is even more piquant this time around. Frontman John Moossa's signature burr has gotten a little funkier, and the group's songwriting is focused, energetic and imposing." Richond.com By Kate Bredimus Based in Richmond, Virginia, MOOSSA has widespread appeal with fans both young and old alike. Moossa delivers a unique blend of groove-oriented roots rock and old school reggae. The group's sound has been likened to that of Elvis Costello meets Sublime or a cross between Bob Marley and Bob Dylan. The band maintains a steady touring schedule of over 100 performances a year. The quartet's current lineup includes: John Moossa - acoustic guitar, lead vocals Jim Fabricatore - electric guitar, vocals Ryan Davis - bass, vocals Scott Lewis - percussion, drums
