Details: Paul Kelly is a gutsy, powerful, hard-hitting, streetwise writer and performer who holds the distinction of being the last great artist of the "golden era of old school soul music". Kelly has written tunes that have been covered by many major artists including The Four Tops, Karla Bonoff, Solomon Burke, The Stylistics and Johnny Adams. He is also a sensationally emotive singer who delivers the goods on this album even dozens of his original compositions. The Devils Pipe reminds listeners of a classic latter day Curtis Mayfield. Many of Kelly's tunes are built around uplifting and encouraging themes that dabble in spirituality.
