Details: Films, Cruise Ships, American Air Bases, Concert Halls, Shopping Malls and Jazz Clubs, in many different countries around the world, characterize Peter Stone's music and the venues he has performed in. Peter marries the visual aspects of art through his own original paintings with his unique compositions for piano, vibraphone, glockenspiel, Technics 6500 workstation. Peter's best seller book, "Travelling To Freedom" was a his first opportunity to bring together his wide variety of talents. Jenefer, also an artist and poet, marries her wealth of global marketing through antique toys and her passionate love of the vibraphone. She is overjoyed now that she has original compositions to play on the vibraphone and glockenspiel. She also plays the piano and has been accompanying Peter for many years. They describe Softly as follows: Our inspiration for Softly came from our pets. They are shown on the CD cover. Our beautiful Oriental cat is called Ming. She is two years old and very mischievous, sometimes we think she is more like a monkey. Our soft white Moodle dog (half poodle, half Maltese terrier) is also two years old. His name is Boyo. He and Ming are the best of friends as you can see. Why not sink softly into our gentle music.
