folk-jazz 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: I dont even like coffee. The smell, anything with a frap, or mocha grande I really cant stand. But yet I play mostly at coffee houses, that's irony. Welcome to my bio, my names Steve. Im working on a new cd right now, which Im calling California Sky. Ive been playing out, doing shows, since the beginning of 03. Slowly getting better every time until at last I can say that Id listen to myself if that werent weird. My sound is best defined as intelligent folk-jazz, but lately Ive been getting more and more into rock and Ive been experimenting with effects and looping, building counter-melodies on top of each other. So I guess you could say thats also my style. A couple of bands that have influenced my playing, singing and songwriting are: Jars of Clay, Paul Simon, Toad the Wet Sprocket, U2, John Mayer, Stevie Ray Vaughan, Tifton Mile (which is unfortunately now another victim of divorce) and the Adam Project. My new cd will be out before summer. Its far more advanced, instrumentation wise, than my previous albums. I expect good things from it. So if youre interested, sign up for my newsletter, and Ill let you know when it debuts. Thanks. Steve
