It has grown into something that will hopefully touch Americans who have or have ever had loved ones serving in the military. Here are those lyrics: My Soldiers Coming Home VERSE 1 Waiting at the airport - folks lined against the wall A mother cradles daughter - as she holds her little doll A lot of people talking - there's excitement through the tears Since the soldiers left us - the months have seemed like years The anticipation peaks - as the plane comes into sight, Every heart begins to race - when the soldiers leave their flight. Each strains to catch a glimpse - of the loved ones they so miss Could not imagine how it'd feel could not imagine joy like this. CHORUS (1) Fathers, sons and brothers - our soldiers coming home Honoring the fallen the flags are being flown Giving their all for freedom in lands so far away I thank God my soldier's coming home VERSE 2 The mother and her daughter (they're) standing all alone Waiting for a coffin - her husband's finally home Through all the great excitement most folks just did not see That this soldier would have to wait for heaven to see his family CHORUS (2) Mothers, daughters, sisters - our soldiers coming home Honoring the fallen the flags are being flown Giving their all for freedom in lands so far away I thank God my soldier's coming home BRIDGE Said our goodbyes Now, lift up your eyes Coming down the hall Are the ones who stand so tall (they are) CHORUS (3) All who served our country - our soldiers coming home Honoring the fallen the flags are being flown Giving their all for freedom in lands so far away Repeat 3 Times I thank God my soldier's
