When it comes to playing Irish music, respectfully I acknowledge Kevin Burke for the influence his playing has had on my own ever evolving ' style '-- Zeb 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic Details: I was born in Galway, Ireland, in '79. I live in Vancouver, Canada. I began violin studies at age six, training classically until age twelve which kept me occupied for another few years. When I was fifteen I'd had enough. I put the fiddle away, grew my hair, picked up a guitar and for the last ten years I've been into Nirvana, Eagles of Death Metal, Soundgarden, Kyuss, Tool and the likes. (You know how it goes). In the summer of 2003 I went to see my dad in Regina. After a few days I suggested to him that we do a show together. He upped the ante by suggesting we record it. I concurred. We picked out some favourite tunes he'd taught me from the time I lived at home, a few songs, brought in a saw player and for three weeks prepared. The work paid off. Judge for yourself. Zeb Dec. 2004 Recorded live at the Bardo Cafe, Regina, Saskatchewan, Aug. 2003 It may be of interest to note that the album ' The Boy From Ireland ', (available here on cdbaby - see UZ2 link on the sidebar) is a recording I did (again with my dad) in Blue Wave Studios in Vancouver in 1981 when I was 9 yrs old. Also, the saw being played on this album ' Musical Priest ' is 3 feet in lenght. You can see pictures of it, and Brendan playing it, by clicking on the ' Musical Priest ' link from this page.
