this music is spiritual with a twist. sometimes controversial, deeply moving 13 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, FOLK: Power-folk Details: Northwest Recording artist Beverly Graham has recorded six full length albums. Her music is haunting, thought provoking, and sometimes just plain fun Since1989, as the founding executive director of OPERATION: Sack Lunch, the largest meal and basic necessities provider for the homeless in the State of Washington, she has raised awareness, thousands of volunteers, and much-needed funds as an inspirational speaker and performer. OPERATION: Sack Lunch has served more than 1.2 million meals since 1989 and currently serves 18,000 meals each month to the homeless and working poor living in the Seattle area. Beverly is the 1997 Washington State recipient of the prestigious National American Institute of Public Service "Jefferson Award" for her humanitarian work. In 1998 she was inducted as a "Giraffe" in The Giraffe Project, an international program that recognizes people around the world who "stick their necks out for the common good". Beverly was honored as the "Woman of Distinction for 2001 and has received several other community based awards and nominations for service, inspiration, and as a peacemaker. She combines her music with a compelling message of equality, compassion, responsibility, and spirituality. Her words and teachings will linger with you long after her performance is finished. A recent article by Dan Fuller states; "standing less than five feet tall, she is a giant to thousands of people who have been touched by her talent and compassion".
